NISafetyE Safety Engineering Awards 2026

Document Reference NISafetyE/SEA/CALL/2026/002 Version 2.0 September 2026

The Nigerian Institution of Safety Engineers invites members, non-members, government institutions, organisations and industry stakeholders to nominate deserving individuals and organisations for the NISafetyE Safety Engineering Awards 2026.

What the Awards Recognise

The awards recognise evidenced excellence, leadership, innovation, collaboration and measurable impact in safety engineering, regulatory oversight, emergency management, industry risk control and professional development.

Award Categories

- A1 Excellence in Safety Regulation and Regulatory Oversight
- A2 Excellence in Safety Advocacy and Collaboration
- A3 Excellence in Safety Emergency Preparedness Response and Recovery
- B1 Oil and Gas Safety Engineering Excellence
- B2 Manufacturing Safety Engineering Excellence
- B3 Construction Safety Engineering Excellence
- C1 Innovation and Contribution to Safety Engineering
- C2 Distinguished Service and Advocacy
- C3 Impact Training and Mentoring
- D1 Leadership Commitment to Safety Engineering
- D2 Positive Influence in Advocacy Collaboration and Promotion of Safety Engineering
- D3 Professional Development of Safety Engineers and Safety Engineering Professionals

What a Nomination Must Include

- The selected award category and clearly declared nomination scope.
- The assessment period and relevant operational or beneficiary context.
- A concise account of the challenge, actions, results and significance.
- An indexed evidence register supporting all material claims.
- Normalised performance data and independent verification where applicable.
- Signed declarations and nominee consent.

A single achievement may support a nomination but will not substitute for evidence against the complete category criteria. For example, an LTI-free milestone must be accompanied by its verified scope, exposure, definitions, leading indicators and relevant process-safety or serious-risk evidence.
